R. Marshall will write another article about the ETC and S. Malan will research the Centennial Tree Project that may have planted the large trees we are taking down today across our villages.

M. Winkler suggested that A.Pampel should ask the EGC for suggested new planting sites.

M. Winkler also suggested that we ask people who want trees planted in front of their property for some funding for such plantings. We all agreed.

A. Pampel told M. Winkler that Fred Weber is responsible for the first year of watering for trees planted.

A. Pampel read an example of the letter that is sent to all who contribute to the ETC.

A. Pampel said that the corner of Walnut and Main Street Ivoryton will be looked at again next year for tree plantings.
