SECTION 20

DEFINITIONS

20A. DEFINITIONS. For the purpose of these Regulations, the following terms and words shall have the meaning hereto assigned to them. Where the terms and words are specific only to the Gateway Conservation District, Section 101, it shall be noted by the use of parenthesis (Section 101). The singular number includes the plural and the plural includes the singular; words used in the present tense include the future; the word “lot” includes “plot” or “parcel”; the word “person” includes “corporation” as well as an individual; the word “used” or “occupied” includes “designed,” “arranged,” or intended to be “used” or intended to be occupied; the word “district” includes “zone.” The word “shall” is always mandatory.

ABUTTING PROPERTY. Any property that makes contact with another along a property line or is located across a roadway and is within 100 feet of a property line.

ACCESSORY IMPROVEMENT. Any improvement which is attendant, subordinate and customarily incidental to the principal improvement on the same premises;

ACCESSORY USE. Any use which is attendant, subordinate and customarily incidental to the principal use on the same lot;

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE. All spirituous and intoxicating liquors, as defined in the General Statutes of the State of Connecticut, Revision of 1958, as amended;

ATTIC. The space between the ceiling beams of the top story and the roof rafters.

AUTOMOBILE SERVICE STATION. A service station, filling station, store, garage or other place of business for the sale of gasoline or other fuel products intended for use in the propelling of motor vehicles using combustion or other type engines; the sale, rental, or service and repair of gasoline or electric powered home garden and lawn equipment shall be considered a use which is customarily incidental to the use of an automobile service station;

BARN. A building used primarily to house livestock, or intended for such use, but not used for human habitation;

BOARDING HOUSE. A family dwelling unit in which the resident owner grants or offers to grant for hire two or more individual sleeping accommodations, with or without meals, to persons who are not members of the family of the resident owner;

BUILDABLE LAND. Buildable Land shall mean all land that is not inland or tidal wetlands or watercourses as defined in Sections 22a-29 and 22a-38 C.G.S., or slopes with an incline of 20% or greater;

BUILDING. Any improvement having a roof and intended for the shelter, housing or enclosure of persons, animals, or materials. Any other improvement more than 8 feet high shall be considered as a building, including a solid fence or wall, but excluding trees, shrubs and utility transmission towers, or an electric light, telephone or telegraph pole, highway or railroad bridge or flagpole; also considered as a building shall be anything located on, above, or beneath the water which is not primarily utilized or intended for navigation;

BUILDING AREA. The ground area enclosed by the walls of a building, together with the area of all porches and other roofed or walled portions of the building;

BUILDING CODE. The provisions of Chapter 354 of the Connecticut General Statutes (Rev. 1958) and any State or local regulations adopted pursuant thereto and in force in the Town, as the same may from time to time be amended;

BUILDING COVERAGE. The percentage which the aggregate area of all buildings on the lot bears to the area of the lot;

BUILDING HEIGHT. The vertical distance between a horizontal plane at the highest point of a building or structure, excluding chimneys and cupolas of no more than 10 square feet (each shall not exceed 45 feet in building height), and lowest point of a building or structure which is visible above existing natural grade prior to site grading. The height of any retaining wall constructed to create a site platform, and of any backfill along the foundation in excess of the existing natural grade, shall be included as part of the measured height. Church spires, industrial storage tanks, water utility storage tanks, radio or television towers and antennas may be erected to a reasonable and necessary height notwithstanding the applicable maximum height limitations prescribed in these Regulations, provided, however, that no radio or television tower or antenna shall exceed 15 feet in height above the highest point of the highest ground elevation of the lot or 15 feet in height above the highest point of the highest building on the lot, whichever is the higher. Fences and freestanding walls shall not exceed 8 feet in height.

BUILDING LINE. A line parallel to a street at distance equal to the required setback from the street line or at a greater distance when otherwise legally established by the Town or by private covenant;

~~BUSINESS OFFICE: The office of recognized businesses such as consultants, accountants, marketing and advertisers, financial institutions, insurance agents, real estate agents, utilities, sales offices, and others who perform services of a business nature.~~

CASUALTY. Property loss caused by fire, vehicular collision, or natural disaster such as high winds, lightning, space debris, heavy snow or flooding.

CELLULAR TELECOMMUNICATIONS FACILITY. Consists of 1) a building not used for human occupancy which will contain mobile radio telephone transmitting, receiving and related equipment, and 2) antennae attached to an existing structure and connecting cables necessary to permit the broadcasting of mobile two-way radio telephone communications.

CENTER LINE OF A STREET. The line which may be drawn through all the points which are equidistant from the boundary lines of property on each side of the street;

CLUB. An association of persons which is the owner, lessee or occupant of an establishment operated solely for a recreational, social, fraternal, religious, political or athletic purpose, whose facilities and activities are confined to the members thereof and their guests and are not extended to the general public; but such term does not include any such association or establishment organized or operated for profit or the chief activity of which is a service customarily carried on as a business enterprise;

COASTAL JURISDICTIONAL LINE. The location of the topographical elevation of the highest predicted tide for the period beginning in 1983 and ending in 2001, referenced to the most recent National Tidal Datum Epoch as published by the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration and described in terms of feet of elevation above the North American Vertical Datum of 1988.

COMMERCIAL CUTTING. Any cutting or removal of forest tree species which is not covered under the definition of noncommercial cutting;

COMMERCIAL CUTTING PLAN (SECTION 101). A plan showing the applicant's property and the abutting property owners, a description of the activity to be undertaken, and a certification by a public or consulting forester that the plan is consistent with the "Minimum Standards for Cutting Timber" set forth in Appendix A of the Standards of the Connecticut River Gateway Commission.

COMMERCIAL MOTOR VEHICLE. A vehicle which is regularly used in the conduct of business, profession, or trade.

COMMISSION. The Essex Zoning Commission;

CONNECTICUT RIVER. Those portions of the Connecticut River or any of its tributaries or associated wetlands located within the Conservation Zone.

CONSERVATION ZONE. That area along the lower Connecticut River defined in Section 22a-102c of the Connecticut General Statutes in which the Connecticut River Gateway Commission is charged with the protection of the "natural and traditional riverway scene."

CONVALESCENT HOME. Also nursing home, rest home, convalescent hospital, special service nursing home, personal care home, residential care home, home for the aged, boarding home for the aged, and similar titles. Specific use as a hospital, clinic, diagnostic or treatment center is not acceptable. The facility must be constructed with the intent of complying with State regulations for the licensing of institutions;

COVERAGE. The percentage which the aggregate building area of all buildings on a lot bears to the total area of that lot.

CUSTOMARY HOME OCCUPATION. Any occupation which commonly in Connecticut is recognized by substantial and long practice as one which has been carried on in a residence by the occupant thereof but not including:

1. An occupation which involves a substantial patronage visiting the premises, or frequent shipments by common carrier, in the purchase or sale of products;
2. An occupation which involves the sale of food or beverages with the exception that said home occupation is approved by the Town Sanitarian and licensed by the State Department of Consumer Protection as a Cottage Food Operation;
3. An occupation which involves the letting of rooms, including but not limited to a boarding house and a bed and breakfast establishment.

DECK. A structural improvement elevated above the surface of the ground, not having a roof, and attached to a building. A deck shall be deemed as part of a building, and 100% of its surface area shall be used in computing maximum building coverage. Decks shall be required to meet all applicable setback requirements for the zoning district in which they are located.

DEVELOPED AREA. Developed Area shall be defined by one of the following procedures: (a) An area adjacent to the Connecticut River or its tributaries and associated wetlands which has within the 50-foot Riparian Area immediately landward of the Coastal Jurisdiction Line been characterized by buildings and construction of greater density than average in the Conservation Zone in such a manner so as to make the retention or replacement of vegetation impractical, infeasible, or inconsistent with the traditional riverway scene, and which has been or may be mapped and designated by the Commission as a Developed Area for the purposes of these standards, and approved by the Gateway Commission. Or (2) The 50-foot Riparian Area will also be considered as "Developed Area" if clearing or constructions have previously occurred in such a manner so as to make the retention or replacement of vegetation within said 50-foot riparian area impractical, infeasible or inconsistent with the traditional riverway scene, as determined by Zoning Commission for the purposes of these Standards in the context of a pending land use application, and approved by the Gateway Commission prior to the approval of such application.

DETACHED ACCESSORY BUILDING. An accessory building which is not attached to the principal building by any covered porch, breezeway, or other roofed structure;

DISTRICT. A district established by the provisions of Section 30 of these regulations as the same may from time to time be amended;
